BULLHEAD CITY — Laughlin Ranch Golf Club, located in Bullhead City AZ, is now home to the Pinnacle Exceptional Drivers Championship, held in November each year.

The event is televised on ESPN several times throughout the year, to over 40 countries around the world.

Beginning this year, if you think you have the right stuff, you can prove it at Laughlin Ranch Golf Club. On Sept. 9, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., golfers are invited to try out for the final competition. Laughlin Ranch Golf Club is one of 128 qualifying event locations. The events are being held across the nation.

Amateur golfers are invited to see who the best driver in the area is — and who will earn a spot in the PDEC finals on November 8 — 11. Each golfer wishing to qualify the final event in November will pay $20 to hit 5 balls in two minutes. They will receive a Two-pack Sampler of Pinnacle Exception Balls and a Pinnacle Hat each time they try to qualify. Qualifying is simply hitting the golf ball long and straight, onto a grid.

Why would they want to try out for the final event... how about a first prize of $50,000 and a new Honda S2000 Roadster?

On Sept. 9, golfers that are trying out will hit five drives per $20 entry, with their cumulative score determining their place in the final local standings. Golfers who hit all five balls in the grid will receive a bonus ball to try to improve his or her score. In the case of ties, a sudden-death playoff will take place to see who advances to the PDEC finals to be held at Laughlin Ranch Golf Club in November. Golfers can register for the tryouts at the pro shop at Laughlin Ranch Golf Club now.
